Tropical Platinum

One of our most luxurious products, Tropical Platinum is more lush and dense than any artificial grass product in the industry. The field/olive/lime green color combination of the fibers provides a vibrant, textured aesthetic that looks great in many residential landscape applications.
